Selectmen's Meeting

MOMENT OF SILENCE

The Board of Selectmen's meeting opened with a moment of silence in memory of Jonathan T. DePina, Sr., Mattapoisett Building Inspector, who died suddenly on September 9th. Chairman William Hubbard recalled Mr. DePina's devotion to his work for Mattapoisett and said that it will be very difficult to find a replacement.

STATE LAWMAKERS' VISIT

Senator William Q. MacLean, Jr. and Representative Walter Silveira, Jr. met with Selectmen concerning the financial outlook for the next fiscal year. MacLean noted that the impact of the property tax limitation law Proposition 2 1/2 would be about $100,000 on Mattapoisett next year. He said that he did not see how the state could return any less of the state tax money to the town next year but that he didn't expect any increase in the amount either. Senator MacLean said that to override Proposition 2 1/2 would be very difficult since it would require a 2/3 vote at town meeting to place the matter on the ballot and then the law requires a 30% turnout at the polls. Representative Silveira noted that a possible bond issue for highway construction may come up to assist the town.

Senator MacLean said that he wished to commend Executive Secretary Stephen Lombard for the excellent job he had always done for Mattapoisett. He mentioned that their frequent contacts had always been a pleasure.

The Selectmen mentioned the difficulty that small towns have to keep up with the requirement for E.M.T.s which are so advanced that smaller communities simply do not have the ability to keep up to them. MacLean said that he has found the same problem in other towns and thinks that it's possible that E.M.T.s may soon have to be limited to cities of over 100,000 population.

ELAINE SYLVIA APPOINTED

Selectmen reviewed the applications for secretary in their office to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Carol Philla. They narrowed the choice to 2 applicants who impressed them with their skills in typing and shorthand. Elaine Sylvia, who worked in the Town Hall in the office of Veterans' Affairs, was further recommended

RESTAURANT PLAN

John Stavros and James Clemmey, his business manager, met with Selectmen to discuss future plans for the Harbor Beach Club which was almost totally destroyed in the fire of late February this year. The stone base of the restaurant is standing on a 51,000 square foot lot. Stavros said that he desired and intended to rebuild but that interest rates are terrible and makes this option not possible at present. At the moment plans are to hold the land for investment. The Corporation also has discussed selling the property to another restaurateur, subdivision as house lots or leasing to other business interests.

Selectmen told Mr. Stavros that he has a 3 year deadline in the grandfather clause to rebuild. They said that they hoped that he could find the financing to accomplish

LETTER RECEIVED

Selectman John DeCosta received a letter from James W. Segel, Executive Director, Massachusetts Municipal Association, thanking him for the opportunity to address the first meeting of the Plymouth Advisory Board on County Appropriations.

Mr. Segel wrote in part: "On behalf of the entire Municipal Association I want to express my gratitude for the work you have done as past Chairman of the Advisory Board. You have provided a solid basis from which the new Advisory Board can depart. We hope that you continue your involvement with the Board so all of Plymouth County can continue to benefit from your resourcefulness."

Appreciation Banquet

HIGHWAY SURVEYOR TO BE HONORED

On Friday evening, November 6th, at White's Restaurant, Westport, there will be an appreciation banquet honoring Highway Surveyor Manuel R. Nunes, Jr. for his 44 years of service to the Town of Mattapoissett.

Tickets are available at the Mattapoissett Selectmen's Office, the prescription counter at the Mattapoissett and Seaport Pharmacies or by contacting James Santos.

The menu will consist of a full course roast sirloin of beef dinner. Cocktails will be at 6:00 and the dinner served at 7:00 p.m.

Chowder with Friends

Does mention of old-fashioned quahog chowder, cornbread and homemade pies whet your appetite?

The East Mattapoissett Friends Meeting will host a public supper at 6 p.m. October 10 in rooms at the rear of the meeting house on Route 6 and tickets for the event are now available. Seating is limited to 70.

The chowder will be prepared under the direction of Carl Wagner of Mattapoissett and Ben Dexter of Marion. Cornbread and pies will be made by women of the church and their friends. It will be a good time to renew friendships and make new acquaintances.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting any member of the meeting or by calling George Robinson at 748-0568, Kathy Clark at 758-2817 or Brad Hathaway at 758-3579.
Proceeds will benefit the East Mattapoissett Friends Meeting.

day, October 1st, at 7:30 p.m. at the Museum. A short business meeting will be held for the election of officers and directors, and reports will be read and acted upon.

Bradford A. Hathaway, a member of the Society, will speak on "Whaling Adventures", first person stories of New England whalemen as told in their letters home.
These adventures cover a wide range of subjects, from storms and shipwrecks and fire aboard ship, to their reactions to life in other parts of the world. Some of the letters refer to cannibals in the South Pacific and Eskimos in the Arctic. Nowhere, except in their letters home, is the life of a whaler so explicitly told.

The Museum will open at 7:00 that evening for viewing before the meeting.

of 131 persons were inoculated; 109 persons were in the over 65 category and 22 between ages 40 and 65.

The initial onslaught of persons waiting for vaccine was soon under control, due to the efficient management skills of Addie Santos and Albert Heuberger. The District Nurses wish to extend their appreciation to the staff from the nutrition program and Mr. Sylvia who made the space of the Legion Hall available.

Due to the additional requests for an administration of the flu vaccine from town residents another flu clinic will be held in October. Details will be published when definite.

David comes from Charlton Memorial Hospital in Fall River where he held the position of Assistant Chief Technologist in the Department of Nuclear Medicine & Ultrasound.

Ultrasound is especially useful in studying internal body organs such as the liver, pancreas, kidneys, heart and the gall bladder. It is also the preferred method for examining obstetrical patients because it allows the physician to actually visualize the fetus in the womb, without using ionizing radiation. This method produces no harmful effects on either the fetus or the mother, thus this procedure can confidently be used as frequently as necessary.

FAIRHAVEN UNITARIAN CHURCH

The noted organist, Dr. Donald W. Williams of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Esther H. Whitaker, well-known mezzo-soprano of the Greater New Bedford area, will present the opening concert of the Creative Arts Series at four o'clock on Sunday, October 4, in the sanctuary of the Unitarian Memorial Church, Fairhaven.

Dr. Williams, native of Atlanta, Georgia, is widely acclaimed as a recitalist throughout the United States and Europe. He holds both Bachelor and Master in Music degrees in organ performance from Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn., and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Michigan. Royal School of Church Music in England; and the following year was the recipient of the Palmer Christian Award presented by the Organ Department of the School of Music of the University of Michigan to alumni in recognition of outstanding accomplishment in teaching, performing and choral conducting. Dr. Williams is currently the organist and choirmaster in the Zion Lutheran Church in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Mrs. Whitaker, a member of the Fairhaven Unitarian Church, is a native of Michigan. She received her Bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University and her Master's degree from Columbia University, New York. Before coming to South Dartmouth to reside, she was associate professor in music education at Oneonta, New York in a unit of New York State University. She has often sung with Dr. Williams in Michigan and they were heard in recital at the Fairhaven Church during the national Bicentennial year, 1976.

Their programs on October 4 will include Spanish compositions for organ; Toccata in C, J.S. Bach; and Sixth Symphony by Vienne. Two vocal groups will include Biblical Songs by Dvorak and four Songs by American composers.

The public is cordially invited to the concert with no admission charged. A free-

This year we will again feature Sandy and Caroline Paton who will host the concert. They play banjo, concertina, fiddle, dulcimer and mandolin and their infectious enthusiasm makes their children's songs an enjoyable sing-along, laugh-along type of entertainment for the small fry. With the Patons will be Mary Anne Samuels who performs for children throughout Vermont every year. Versatile Bruce Hutton will weave the threads of story telling through his many talents as a musician and historian, a favorite of children's audiences; and another performer from Vermont, Margaret MacArthur, a regular of the Eisteddfod, will be here to sing ballads, children's songs, and introduce everyone to the delights of the dulcimer. Please be on hand for this very special children's event. Tickets are available at the Children's Museum and SMU, children under five are admitted free. That's Saturday, September 26th, at 1:00 p.m. at the Children's Museum, just 1/4 mile from SMU. For further information call 993-3361.

Historic Walking Tour

A Walking Tour of the County Street Historic Area will be offered on Sunday, September 27th, at 3:00 p.m. Groups should be assembled at the Swain School, corner of County and Hawthorn Streets, where ample parking is available.

The tour will last one and a half hours. Following the tour, light refreshments will be offered.

The volunteer Walking Tour Guides, trained jointly by W.H.A.L.E. (Waterfront Historic Area League) and the Whaling Museum (Old Dartmouth Historical Society), will lead the tour.

In the 1800's, County Street - especially the area from Hawthorn Street to Union Street - was the most fashionable place to live. "A home on the hill" was everyone's dream.

The lives of the County Street residents reflected the progress of the city, while their homes mirrored New Bedford's growth

SMU Theater

"BUTLEY" AT SMU

"Butley", the first fall production of the Southeastern Massachusetts Theatre Company set for October 1-4, will star Richard Kavanaugh, one of Trinity Square's leading male actors.

The curtain will go up at 8 p.m. in the SMU Auditorium.

"Simon Gray's 'Butley' is both a brilliant character study of a person with many talents but no capacity for human relationships and an incisive, satirical presentation of contemporary university life," said Angus Bailey, the play's director. "It is funny and rueful, just as Butley himself is highly amusing and more than a little sad."

Kavanaugh, who plays the leading role of Butley, is a veteran at Trinity Square. His most recent parts were the central figure in "Whose Life Is It Anyway?" and the title role in "Elephant Man". He has appeared on Broadway with Frank Langella in "Dracula" in the major role of Renfield. He has also appeared regularly at the Williamstown Summer Theatre Festival and in such leading regional theatres as the Longwharf in New Haven, the Hartford Theatre Company, and Washington's Arena Stage.

Others in the cast are Melanie Snipes, Sally Jones, Robin Wills, David Perry, Tom Shaftoe, and Eric Corwin.

the Fine Arts Building (Group VI) on the SMU campus in North Dartmouth.

Dr. Jean Lozinski, art historian, is instructor for the program. Dr. Lozinski has taught academic courses at SMU as well as several slide lecture programs through the Institute's Taste of Honey Program.

The Institute on Health and Long Life is an independent activity within the Division of Continuing Studies at SMU. The Institute has been offering cultural enrichment courses in the areas of art, literature, and music since the spring of 1977. "Famous Dutch Painters" will be the thirteenth such offering.

The Taste of Honey Program is open to persons of all ages. However, special programs rates are available for those aged 59 and older. For information on fees and registration procedures, call the Institute staff coordinator at 994-9681 or 636-8768.

ders must be placed and paid for by October 10. Seed pick-up day will be October 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the sanctuary.

The Audubon mixes have been prepared to attract a wide variety of birds and to give them a sound diet. In addition to the seed, bird feeders and the 1982 Audubon calendar will be offered for sale.

For people beginning a feeding program, there are helpful details in "Going to Seed", a free pamphlet on winter bird feeding. For the pamphlet or a seed order form contact: The Ashumet Holly Reservation, Ashumet Road, East Falmouth, Mass. 02536.

Bird feeding has been gaining in popularity since the 1930's. People who enjoy feeding birds agree that a feeding program is a pleasure in itself and it also tends to heighten one's awareness and sensitivity to wildlife in general.

For additional information about the bird seed sale or feeding programs, contact the sanctuary at 563-6390.

works in textiles, opening on October 2nd, in the Cranberry Gallery of the admission-free museum in Plymouth. According to Anita Franks, Cranberry World's manager and curator, "beautiful hand-crafted textile pieces--soft sculpture, macrame, handmade paper, on-and-off-loom weaving, and more--will be on display through November 1st.

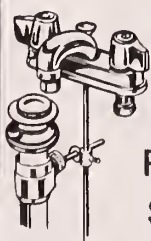

"Nature is a prevalent theme for many of the artists," points out Ms. Franks, citing Ruth Ginsberg-Place's 'Flower Frieze' as an example. Says the artist, "All of my work has been nature-inspired; the early work was abstract, the current is pictorial." Artists Johanna Erickson, who weaves using the Finnish technique of "rya" (pronounced ree-ya), describes her finished work as the blending of "subtle color and light effects, deep texture and soft edges, and inspiration from nature."

Museum visitors will also be treated to nature in three dimensions as perceived by two innovators: Susan Peters, who has created two six-foot tall macrame trees; and Parvati Shirley Britton, whose award-winning soft sculpture of a giant pumpkin, "Harvest Jewel", features crocheted threads and moisture droplets formed by faceted glass beads.

Fridman's "Southern Upper Egypt: Gebel el-Silsila to Abydos" will be suspended in the center of the "Cranberry Gallery" so its different patterns, formed by weaving linen, wool, and grasses can be viewed from both sides. "The piece was finished especially in time for the Cranberry World showing and is inspired by the artist's extensive travels," explains Curator Franks who calls Fridman "one of the most exciting fiber artists working in New England today".

Mecagni, who relies on "visual and emotional stimuli" to create pieces like her split-tapestry "Coleus", Randy Darwall's double-weave blanket with velvet border simply titled "Blanket", and Gail MacGibbon's basket-like fantasies called "Anenome" and "Spriffel".

Papermakers are represented by Elaine Koretsky with her "Memories of An Old Quilt", and Sarah Redfield's series of eight miniature pieces, "Recycled Mania".

Ms. Franks was assisted by craft artists John Heller and Joan Hausrath in selecting the varied pieces for the month-long "Fiber to the Fore" showing.

The "Cranberry Gallery" is just one aspect of Cranberry World to be explored and enjoyed. The museum offers displays, artifacts, and harvesting equipment that tell the story of cranberries from soil to the table. Cooking demonstrations are held daily, along with regular free drink samplings.

Cranberry World, sponsored by the agricultural cooperative Ocean Spray Cranberries Inc., is within a ten-minute walk from Plymouth Rock and the Mayflower II. It is located on Water Street and is open daily from 9:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. through November.

Monthly Holy Hour

The Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament will be having their monthly holy hour on Tuesday, September 29, from 7-8 p.m. at the Sacred Hearts Church, 382 Main Street, Fairhaven. Father Martin Lucia, S.S.C.C., founder of the holy hour program, will celebrate the Mass with homily, with the purpose of this special Mass being to encourage area persons to offer one hour in adoration to Our Lord, Jesus, at Our Lady of Lourdes Chapel, in the Sacred Hearts Church. It is the desire of the Sacred Heart father to make the Chapel a Eucharistic Shrine of devotion and reparation.

Refreshments will follow the holy hour in the small church hall, where Father Martin will have a dialogue on the Holy Eucharist and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This will be a very important holy hour and all past and present adorers, as well as anyone desiring to know more about the program are invited to attend. Bring a friend along. All are welcome. For more information call Angelo DeBorteli, 580 North Front Street, New Bedford, 996-0332.

Blessed Sacrament

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will take place the first Friday, October 2nd, following the 8:30 a.m. Mass to 9 p.m. at Our Lady of Lourdes Chapel, in the Sacred Hearts Church, 382 Main Street, Fairhaven. Closing Benediction will be at 8:45 p.m. Everyone is invited to spend some time before the Blessed Sacrament.

The Chapel is open daily for adoration from

SMU Guest Artist Series

The music department of Southeastern Massachusetts University will open the fall semester Concert Series with a guest artist presentation by Frank Church, cello, and Elizabeth Sawyer, piano. They will perform Adagio by Marcello-Bach; Variations Concertantes, Op. 17 by Mendelssohn; Sonata No. 4 in C Major, No. 1 by Beethoven; and Sonata Op. by Shostakovich. The performance which is free and open to the public will take place on Thursday, October 1, at 12:30 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the College of Visual and Performing Arts.

Frank Church began his cello studies with Norman Hollander, completed his undergraduate degree at the Oberlin Conservatory and received a master's and Master of Musical Arts degree at the Yale School of Music. He has performed with various orchestras throughout Europe and the United States and he is presently associate professor of music at Connecticut College, where he teaches cello and music theory.

Elizabeth Sawyer was awarded the top prize in her class in the International Piano Recording Festival at the age of nine and by sixteen had received many other national honors. After earning her B.A. in piano performance, Miss Sawyer received the degrees of Master of Music, Master of Musical Arts, and Doctor of Musical Arts from Yale University's School of Music. She has appeared in recital and with orchestras throughout the United States and abroad, and has established a considerable reputation as a sonata recitalist.

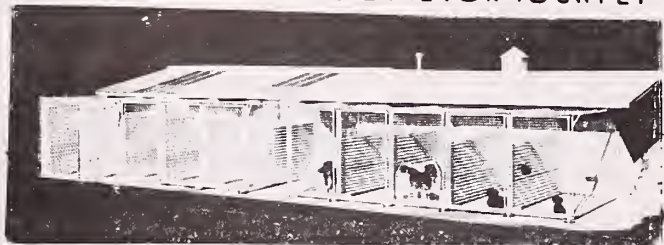

The fall semester Guest Artist Series will continue with a piano lecture/recital on October 15, a flute/violin/piano trio on October 29, a percussion demonstration November 12 and a Baroque ensemble performance on December 3. All recitals in this series begin at 12:30 p.m. in the Recital Hall and are free to the public.

to present a show of oil paintings by Tidi da Silva, formerly from the Netherlands, now residing and painting in New Bedford. This is Ms. da Silva's first major showing in the United States. Her work depicts, in a forceful and heartrending manner, the realization of loneliness and isolation one might feel in a modern social environment.

The opening reception will be held on Sunday, October 4th, from 2-6. The public is cordially invited. The show will continue through the 30th of the month.

Gallery hours are: Tuesday-Friday, 11-4; Sunday, 1-4; Wednesday evenings, 7-9. For more information call 993-2248.

Archeological Exhibit

"KUSH: LOST KINGDOM OF THE NILE"
TO OPEN AT BROCKTON ART MUSEUM

"Kush: Lost Kingdom of the Nile", a major new exhibition of archaeological discoveries from the ancient Sudan, will open to the public at the Brockton Art Museum on Tuesday, September 29. "Kush" is a cooperative presentation of the B.A.M. and the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

The objects included in the "Kush" exhibition were unearthed by famed Egyptologists Dows Dunham and George Reisner during their expeditions to the Sudan between 1916 and 1923. Among the 150 artifacts to be seen in this extraordinary show are a queen's silver-gilt mummy mask, lovingly restored just this year by the M.F.A.'s laboratory; year stay at the Brockton Art Museum, "Kush" will be permanently housed at the Museum of Fine Arts.

The empire of Kush flourished for more than 1,000 years in what is now the Sudan, south of Egypt. In the 8th century B.C., Kushite rulers led their armies across the desert and conquered the land of the pharaohs. These enlightened conquerors quickly set about restoring Egypt's faded glories and brought about its final cultural renaissance in what has become known as the "Nubian Dynasty".

PAUSE), EMOTIONAL AND SOCIAL CHANGES OF MID-LIFE. Speakers include Dr. Marion London, Psychologist, and Dr. John Santos, Gynecologist. The session will be held on Thursday, October 22, at 7:00 p.m. at the Buttonwood Library, Rockdale Avenue, New Bedford. It is free of charge.

For "seasoned" citizens there is ARTHRITIS: THE KINDS, THE CAUSES AND TREATMENT. Included are suggestions about devices that assist, protecting joints and saving energy. The speaker will be Dr. Michael Egan, Rheumatologist. St. Luke's Rehabilitation Staff will also participate. This session will be held on Wednesday, October 28, 1:30 p.m. at the Melville Towers Housing Unit, Tower Drive, New Bedford. It is also free of charge.

Anyone interested in attending any or several of the sessions should register for each session by calling St. Luke's at 997-1515, extension 374 between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The "Your Age Stage" program is the third of its kind sponsored for the community by St. Luke's. Community education programs are one way the hospital can motivate area residents to take better care of themselves and "teaching them how is as much a part of St. Luke's mission as repairing the damage when done", noted Alfred J. Smialek, executive director.

NOTICE - MATTAPOISETT RESIDENTS

Water Department personnel are in the process of reading water meters. Homeowners who read their own meters will be receiving their postcard forms soon. Please fill them out and mail them, promptly, lest they be misplaced or forgotten. This will enable us to prepare proper bills at a minimum cost and will help to hold down water rates. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

TOWN OF ROCHESTER, MASSACHUSETTS BOARD OF HEALTH

Pursuant to the Provisions of Section 150A of Chapter 111 of the Massachusetts General Law, as amended, "The Board of Health of the Town of Rochester, Massachusetts, has unanimously voted to amend the site assignment of the Energy Answers Corporation, formerly Environmental Energy Corporation, for a waste to Energy Facility for land located in the Town of Rochester consisting of 99.5 acres, identified on the Rochester's Assessors' Plans as:
Plan #17, Lot 1 and Plan #18, Lot 10." The assignment was approved October 20, 1980, by The Board of Health members Benjamin A. Gilmore, II, Chairman; Kirby S. Gilmore and Gary A. Grosart.
